

Curriculum for Beginner Level

Speaking & Listening	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Improve student’s listening skill. • Provide many opportunities for student to speak in Japanese and becoming comfortable with it. • Help student verbally express his thoughts immediately. • Make simple conversation for basic communication such as travelling and shopping.
Reading & Writing	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Hiragana writing system. • Read simple conversations.
Grammar & Vocabulary Curriculum for Beginner Course	You can give a self introduction talking about your name and other information.	Lesson 1: What is your name? I am Yuta.
		Lesson 2: Where are you from? I am from Japan.
	You can make a reservation using your phone number.	Lesson 3: What’s your phone number? My phone number is...
	You can give souvenirs and make a recommendation.	Lesson 4: What is this? This is a pen.
	You can do shopping in Japan specifying what you want to buy and check prices.	Lesson 5: What brand’s car is this? This is my Toyota’s car.
		Lesson 6: How much is this? This is 10 dollars.
		Lesson 7: How much is this watch? This watch is 10000 yen.
	You can ask opening hours and day off.	Lesson 8: What time is the opening hour? From 9 a.m. to 3 p.m.
		Lesson 9: What days of the week is today? Today is Monday
	You can talk about things you do on daily basis.	Lesson 10: What do you drink? I drink beer.

	You can invite your friends for an activity.	Lesson 11: Why don't we see a movie? Yes, sounds good!
Hiragana Curriculum for Beginner Course	You can recognise and write each hiragana. You can recognise special usage of Hiragana and pronounce in correct manner.	All Hiragana Characters Long Vowels Small size “っ” Compound Hiragana

* There will be many chances to apply grammar you've learned in many practical situations.

* Curriculum is subjected to change due to teacher's professional assessment of each classes' needs.

